

III. The Battle of The Kingdoms

After Adam and Eve sinned and fell, their elder son, Cain murdered his brother, Abel, and got banished. But God's will however, could not be thwarted by human failures, He gave Adam a third son Seth in place of Abel. (Gen. 4:25) Satan again corrupted the children of Seth to a degree that "the thoughts of his(man's) heart was only evil all the time."(Gen. 6:5). Thus God's judgment came upon that generation—the flood.

God maintained the existence of mankind through the family of Noah. But again Satan corrupted Noah's descendants so that they glorified not God but themselves by building the Tower of Babel. God punished mankind once more by confusing their language and scattered them over the face the whole earth. (Gen. 11:1-9)

Here we see that whenever God does something positive Satan will counter with a negative act to frustrate God's plan. God wants mankind to come to Him and follow Him. But Satan with all his cunning has always tried to entice man away from God. This seesaw warfare has not ceased till today.
